The dry, oily scales clog the roots of the hair, preventing proper nutrition. Soon the hair begins to fall out.

The blend of palm and olive oils you get in Palmolive softens and penetrates the scales, loosening the cap-like accumulation.

Gentle massage forces it into the tissue of the scalp, leaving it healthfully purged and clean. Hair shampooed with Palmolive is never dry, harsh and brittle. The blending of these soothing oils leaves it soft, glossy

BROADWAY-NOW PLAYING BROADWAY—NOW PLAYING.

There are two big features at the Broadway theatre for the last half of this week. The first is Conway Tearle in A Wide Open Town and the other is James Dilver Curwood's famous novel, God's Country and the Law, featuring Gladys Leslie.

A Wide-Open Town is from a story by Earl Mitchell, scenario by Edward J. Montagne. The direction is by Raiph Ince, who attracted a great deal of attention as the director of A Man's Home. As the title would seem to indicate there

Ince, who attracted a great deal of attention as the director of A Man's Home. As the title would seem to indicate there is some gambling stuff in the photoplay, a considerable amount of the netion depending upon the activities of a group of devoters of the Goddess of Chance who are operating in a small American city. The big interest in the pictures comes from the development of the principal character from a ragged little urchin born, and at the most unhappy environment, into a successful young business man after having gone through a reform school and having been imprisoned for a nuarder which he committed in self defense.

After patiently waiting and anticipating, the photoplay faus of this city are to be treated once again to a picturization of another famous James Oliver Curwood story of the North woods. This latest Curwood picturization is entitled God's Country and the Law and is one of his most recently written stories. Photoplay fars here and all over the entire.

AT STRAND—CALINA'S CIRCUS, There are five fine acts scheduled for the Etrand the last half of this week. Callina's Circus is the main attraction being composed of ponies and mankeys. This is sure to be a treat for young and old.

John & Nellie Olms are watch wirants, that don't come under the head of illusion but are skillful almost to the border of sclenning.

Al & Mabel Joy offer Just a Little Nonsense. The honsense is provided in comedy, song, dance and acrobatics.

Ward & Bohkman appear in a skit which they call Call It What You Like. They endeavor to make you laugh and they certainly succeed in doing this.

The Dublin Trie appear in Irish melodies. Of course the Bublin Trie is Irish, two pretty colleens and a lad, the trie specializing in Irish melodies. These The Dublin Trio appear in Irish melodies. Of course the Dublin Trio is irish, two pretty colleens and a lad, the trio specializing in Irish melodies. These melodies are Irish airs that have a universal appeal. They are suing delightfully, attractively and splendidly.

It's not the ordinary fiapper Gladys Walton portrays in her latest picture at the Strand theater, Playing With Fire, but a girl of the short skirts age with a melody shop training and a penchant for absorbing "class." A most unusual little figure, a likeable one, impersonated as only Gladys Walton can do it. Dallas Fitzgerald directed the nim for Universal.
